THE ART WITHIN

‘Textures’ by Rosa Cortiella

‘TEXTURES’

Rosa Cortiella, 2026

In Textures, Rosa Cortiella draws inspiration from the language of antique wallpapers, where leaves, branches and flowers dissolve into rhythm, texture and pattern.

Echoing Barcelona’s industrial past, these ornamental motifs are reinterpreted through clay with a contemporary sensibility. What once belonged to decorative surfaces is transformed into a sculptural object, where the organic and the crafted exist in quiet harmony.

Its smooth silhouette and finely worked relief create a subtle tactile experience, evoking softness, movement and the passing of time.

Through this piece, the artist brings together memory, material and craftsmanship in a refined interpretation of texture.

Now placed in the guest rooms and suites, Textures connects guests with Barcelona’s artistic heritage and creative spirit.
